

PRESS RELEASE 6th February 2007

FOOTBALLCV.COM TO STAGE TRIALS DAY AT RUSHDEN

Aston Villa will head a list of Clubs who will be sending scouts to Rushden & Diamonds later this month for the latest FootballCV.com trials day.

On Wednesday 21st February FootballCV.com, the website database for footballers of all ages, will be staging a Trials Day at Nene Park, home of Rushden & Diamonds Football Club, where a limited number of places remain. This Trials Day is catering for members in the Under 16's, Under 18's and Over 18's age groups and places cost £40 for the all ages groups.

The 'Players Panel' will feature scouts from Aston Villa, Birmingham City, Leicester City, and Coventry City with a number of other Football League and non-league scouts expected to be in attendance throughout the day, including local sides Peterborough United and Kettering Town, as well as Rushden themselves.

There has been a lot of interest in members from Premiership and Football League clubs following our extensive trials in 2006 and therefore anyone who would like to secure their place in the latest FootballCV.com trials day is advised to book online at www.footballcv.com or ring 0870 240 0523.

This is the first trials day at Nene Park since it was announced that FootballCV.com's Academy will be based at the ground when it launches in time for next season. In it's first year they will house forty students, aged sixteen; catering for their educational needs and football development and utilising top class facilities including the stadium, training pitches, sports hall, study centre, canteen, gym and physio room.

The Academy will be like no other in the country with up to 30 hours a week spent on intense football training and playing, whilst having the opportunity to gain some qualifications off the field. For more information about the FootballCV.com Academy, future trials days and to book your place for this event please visit www.footballcv.com or ring 0870 240 0523.
